Dear Mr. Director:

STAT

It is a pleasure to recommend this young man to you as I consider him and his family among my close personal friends and know him to be of high moral character and superior intelligence.

In view of my personal interest in his application, I would be deeply grateful if you would arrange to have one of your assistants grant him a personal interview on Friday, July 12, at approximately 11:00 AM, in order that he may personally discuss his qualifications and prospects at that time. While I realize that the request for so specific a time may be inconvenient, I am attempting to secure several appointments for him within a short period of time, and would prefer the above-mentioned hour if at all possible. If this is not possible, I would appreciate a phone call to Mrs. McCann in my office to arrange a more convenient time.

Your assistance and cooperation in this matter are gratefully appreciated, and with best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Joel T. Broyle, M. C.
